HOCKEY REPORT

Neither team had a very successful season, owing partly to bad weather, but also to lack of support from the younger people, a situation that will we hope be rectified next year.

Although the 1st XI failed to reach the final of the Middlesex Inter-Schools Tournament, we must congratulate S. Pratt on obtaining a place in the reserve Middlesex Junior County team.

We should all like to thank Miss Temple for coaching and encouraging the teams; the other members of staff who so kindly umpired for us in all weathers and those who catered for us throughout the year. The teams were chosen from:

1st XI: *J. Sholl (Capt.), *S. Pratt (Vice-Capt.), R. Aylott, J. Whiting, J. Abbey (left at Christmas), V. Ross, D. Stevens, C. Browning, J. Fowler, J. Parker, B. Shepherd, J. Kavanagh, †M. Johnstone.

2nd XI: †J. Honeybone (Capt.), S. Boon (Vice-Capt.), S. Cook, A. Matthews, J. Barstow, S. Jay (left at Christmas), J. Reynolds, C. Eagling, M. Shackcloth, M. Shepherd, J. Owen, C. Allan, A. Masters, T. Traill, C. Leech, D. Benyu, L. Dell, J. Milner, J. Hammond.

NETBALL

The results of the 1957-58 Netball season were fairly successful, but unfortunately several matches were cancelled as a result of bad weather.

Our thanks are due to Miss Witte, Miss Atkin and Mrs. Wilding for their coaching and also to the other members of staff who umpired and those who served refreshments.

The teams were chosen from:

Under 14 team: *D. Hands (capt.), *S. Fisher, A. Pedgrift, M. Holdaway, S. Greenfield, E. Phillips, B. Parnell, J. Millard.

Under 13 team: R. Platford (Capt.), S. Potter, P. Buck, J. Wilson, S. Moulding, U. Barker, G. Mister, P. Holbrook.

TENNIS

The 1958 season was very successful, nine matches being won out of eleven played. S. Pratt and C. Browning, one of the two couples who entered the Winchmore Hill Lawn Tennis Club Schools' Tournament gained first prize, with the second couple close behind. Once again we retained the Fairfield Cup.

Our thanks are due to Miss Temple, to whom we wish a speedy recovery, and the umpires who helped to make our season so successful.

The teams were chosen from:

1st Team: S. Pratt (Capt.), C. Browning, *P. Barltrop (Vice-Capt.), *J. Parker, A. Mathews, B. Shepherd, *J. Kavanagh.

2nd Team: B. Atkins, M. Birné, S. Boon, D. Stevens, V. Ross, S. Gould, J. Fowler, J. Sholl.

FOOTBALL

The first and second elevens had very poor seasons, the goalkeepers frequently requiring cures for severe back ache.

The two junior teams, however, were far more successful and it is sincerely hoped that this talent will spread to the senior elevens in the coming year.

All the teams were extremely grateful to Mr. Morrison and other members of staff who assisted them, both with refereeing and encouragement from the touch line.
